Visit from the Bishop of Whitby 27.3.25
We were please to welcome the Bishop of Whitby to our school last Thursday to meet the staff and children and lead us in a special Collective Worship. Please see attached and on our website a letter from the Bishop following his visit. I wanted to shar this lovely quote from his letter:
"It was inspiring to see how you engaged during collective worship. You are clearly an energised and engaged school community. I loved how you spotted things in my bishop's robes which I hadn't and were keen to find out more – those gifts of observation and curiosity will hold you well as you grow up."

Reflection of the week from Mari Palmer, Diocesan Director of Education

The Spiritual Benefits of Serving

Helping can enrich the spiritual lives of Christians, fostering a deeper connection to God and/or humanity. Serving others cultivates humility, gratitude, and empathy, qualities that can also strengthen faith and character……

Overcoming Challenges in Serving

While serving is deeply rewarding, it often comes with challenges. Limited resources, societal indifference, and personal biases can hinder efforts to make an impact. Christians and all may struggle to balance their responsibilities with the demands of service. However, recognizing these obstacles as opportunities for growth can strengthen their resolve. By seeking God's guidance through prayer and leaning on community support, believers can overcome discouragement……..

Inspiring Stories of Christians Helping the Poor

Across the globe, countless people have dedicated their lives to uplifting the poor, demonstrating faith in action. From Mother Teresa's tireless work with the destitute in Kolkata to local missionaries providing relief in disaster-stricken areas, these stories inspire and encourage…… these accounts highlight the transformative power of love and service.

Thank you for all your support for school. I will look forward to hearing about your new developments as you start the new term with Ms Hume. May I take this opportunity to wish you a blessed and happy Easter holiday and all best wishes for the future.

Yours sincerely

MK Hunt
