Reflection of the week from Mari Palmer York Diocese Director of Education

If you are a Christian you may believe that we are created by and made in the image of God, that this is where our true identity rests. God does not judge us by the same standards as the world. God knows us inside out and we need have no pretences with him. Are we, whether we believe or not, ever truly in this state of mind?

Who Am I?

Who am I
If I 'm not a celebrity
Don't appear in Hello magazine
Or in tabloid newspapers?

What am I worth
If I don't have loads of money
An impressive job
A flashy car
And a designer house and garden?
Who says I'm significant
If I'm ignored in the workplace
Taken for granted in the home
Abused by the young
And told I don't count?

Who am I
As I grow older
And youth rules
Technology drives
And money speaks?

Who am I? Liz Babbs 2001

Kind regards
